6) The person authorized to play is obliged to inform themselves about all usage, safety, course and behavior regulations before using the golf course and fully respect them. The use of the golf course by the person authorized to play is at their own risk and risk. Parents are responsible for their children. Use of the golf carts is at your own risk.

7) The person entitled to play is not entitled to a minimum use of the facility. Restrictions on the usability of the facilities - for whatever reasons - whether these lie in the sphere of the person entitled to play themselves or in the sphere of Golf Senza Confini or the club, cannot give rise to any claims by the person entitled to play. This applies in particular to any temporary unusability of the facilities due to natural events, the carrying out of necessary repairs and maintenance work and the holding of closed events. The time scope of the usability of the facilities is determined by Golf Senza Confini in accordance with weather conditions set.

8) Liability of the operator and the club for property damage or personal injury or for loss or theft of property belonging to members and persons authorized to play is expressly excluded. We are not responsible for the wardrobe.

9) Persons authorized to play are liable for any personal injury and/or property damage caused by using the golf course. The obligation to pay damages applies to the person causing the damage, regardless of whether the damage occurred to the operator's facilities or facilities, the association or to the assets of third parties. If the tortfeasor is not responsible for even slight negligence in causing the damage, he is exempt from liability. In this context, the operator refers to the safety etiquette regulations and specific course rules that are common in golf and recommends taking out sufficient golf liability insurance.

10) The General Terms and Conditions are valid until revoked or changed and can be viewed by everyone on the website www.golfsenzaconfini.com in the currently valid version.

11) Misprints, errors and changes at any time (including these general terms and conditions) are reserved.
